Brothers and sisters,
Let us acknowledge our sins,
And so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

All Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
we have sinned against you,
and against our neighbour,
in thought, and word, and deed,
through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry, and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life
to the glory of your name.
Amen.

Lord, have mercy or Kyrie, eleison
All Lord, have mercy Kyrie, eleison

[Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God in the highest.]

The Collect

O almighty God,
who hast knit together thine elect
in one communion and fellowship
in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord:
grant us grace so to follow thy blessed saints

in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys which thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee;
through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord,
who liveth and reigneth with thee,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Readings

Sit

First Reading: Isaiah 25.6–9

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear.
And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death for ever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day,

Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.

This is the Lord for whom we have waited;

let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

At the end the reader says

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 24.1–6

R/The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

The earth is the Lord's and all that fills it,
the compass of the world and all who dwell therein.
For he has founded it upon the seas
and set it firm upon the rivers of the deep. R/

'Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord, or who can rise up in his holy place?'
'Those who have clean hands and a pure heart,
who have not lifted up their soul to an idol,
nor sworn an oath to a lie; R/

'They shall receive a blessing from the Lord,
a just reward from the God of their salvation.'
Such is the company of those who seek him,
of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob. R/

Second Reading: Revelation 21.1–6a

A reading from the book of Revelation.

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

'See, the home of God is among mortals.
He will dwell with them;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
he will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.'

And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.' Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.'

At the end the reader says
This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Stand

An acclamation heralds the Gospel reading.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.

You have the words of eternal life.

All Alleluia!

Gospel Reading: John 11.32–44

When the Gospel is announced, the priest says

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, ‘Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.’ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, ‘Where have you laid him?’ They said to him, ‘Lord, come and see.’ Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, ‘See how he loved him!’ But some of them said, ‘Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?’

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, ‘Take away the stone.’ Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, ‘Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.’ Jesus said to her, ‘Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?’ So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, ‘Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.’ When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, ‘Lazarus, come out!’ The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, ‘Unbind him, and let him go.’

At the end the priest says

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

The Creed

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
Bow [until 'and was made man'] was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

NOTICES

Calling all photographers

We are looking to brighten up our website with images that reflect the life of the parish. If you have anything suitable (it will need to be digital) then please send it by email to the parish office (administrator@wantageparish.com). Please ensure that, if there are recognisable people, you originally had or can obtain permission from those involved to let the photograph become public.

Refreshments after Mass

We are pleased that there will be refreshments after the Mass at the Parish Church once more. Please do join us. It is such an important part of welcoming visitors and renewing friendships. More volunteers who are happy to set out, serve and clear away are needed please. Ideally we would have three volunteers each Sunday and sufficient numbers to each take one Sunday a month. Please let Alison Jestico know if you are happy to help: 07885 842394. Thank you

Roof repair progressing well

The contractors are making good progress with the repairs to the roof of the north aisle of the Parish Church. As well as replacing the lead, which was worn out, they will be repairing the stone copings on top of the west wall of the church. This is where damp has been getting into the building, in the northwest corner of the church. The external work should be finished by around the end of November. Once the walls have had time to dry out, the interior plaster in the northwest corner will be repaired as necessary and the area redecorated.
